Dear Mr. Kaimart:

Thank you for your recent letter requesting information on NFPA codes and standards activities that relate to your product referred to as "The Fire Extinguishing Ball."

Any request for a new project that it is clearly not addressed elsewhere in the NFPA system will be forwarded to the NFPA Standards Council for consideration. However, this topic appears to be within the project scope of the NFPA Technical Committee on Portable Extinguishers, which is responsible for NFPA 10, Standard for Portable Fire Extinguishers (2002 edition). NFPA 10 and other codes and standards may be obtained through the NFPA Customer Service Department (1-800-344-3555) or on-line through the NFPA website (www.nfpa.org).

After reviewing NFPA 10, you may want to consider the submittal of public proposals and comments to NFPA 10, which is currently in the November-2005 revision cycle. The latest proposed changes are presently being compiled and are scheduled to be made available in the "November-2005-ROP." The ROP will be available in late January 2005, and will be posted on the Codes and Standards section of the NFPA website, or can be obtained at no cost through the NFPA Customer Service Department (1-800-344-3555). The staff liaison for the NFPA Technical Committee on Portable Fire Extinguishers, Mr. Mark Conroy of NFPA staff, can assist you with any further processing questions you may have.

Thank you for your interest and involvement in the NFPA codes and standards making process. I trust that this adequately addresses your concerns at this time.

Sincerely,
